Putrajaya Tour. Onto the Genting Highlands

Arrive into Kuala Lumpur. Freshen up and have breakfast. Proceed for a sightseeing tour of the garden city of Putrajaya. Located in the heart of the lavish Multimedia Super Corridor (MSC), it is the Malaysian government's impressive new administrative seat. See the fully-integrated and self-contained city boasting the latest communication, transportation and infrastructure technologies. Some of the buildings worth seeing are Perdana Putra, the Prime Minister's Office, Putra Mosque, Putrajaya Landmark, Millennium Monument (built in the shape of hibiscus, the national flower), The Putrajaya Lake, occupying centre stage in the complex and the Agricultural Park.

Continue our journey to the Genting Highlands. Check-in hotel. Later have lunch.

Visit Batu Caves - a towering limestone outcropping just 13 kilometres north of Kuala Lumpur. The caves house numerous Hindu shrines and is a famous landmark in KL. One has to climb 272 steps to reach the top where you can admire the limestone formations and watch devotees pay homage to their respective deities.

Take the cable car to the Genting Highlands. Genting Highlands is an integrated resort development comprising hotels, casinos, shopping malls and a theme park in Pahang, perched on the peak of Gunung Ulu Kali at 1,800 meters high. Nestled near the border of Selangor within an hour's drive from Kuala Lumpur (about 35km), Genting represents a popular weekend getaway from the city heat, connected by major highways, trunk roads and cable car service from Gohtong Jaya.
